QUARTER ONE:

Center Against Rape and Domestic Violence (CARDV)

The mission of the CARDV is two-fold: To provide services and support to those affected by sexual and domestic violence, and to provide education and leadership within the community to change the societal conditions that cultivate these forms of violence.

Jackson Street Youth Services

Jackson Street Youth Services is here to promote safety, stability and well-being for youth. They work to prevent homelessness by showing a path to long-term success through building positive relationships and teaching skills for self-sufficiency. Their 24/7 shelters provide crisis stabilization for youth who are experiencing or at-risk-of homelessness. Beyond the shelter doors, prevention and outreach programs aim to halt youth homelessness before it begins.

CASA - Voices for Children

CASA's mission is to ensure the best outcome and future for each abused and neglected child in Benton County and beyond by training volunteers to provide advocacy and life skills, while expanding services to help kids thrive.

Chintimini Wildlife Center

Chintimini Wildlife Center (CWC) provides care for Oregon's injured, ill, and orphaned wildlife with the goal of returning them to their natural habitat and fosters a connection between people and wildlife through education. CWC is home to a wildlife hospital, a Raptor Education Program, and a youth education program - all located right outside Corvallis.

QUARTER TWO:

Co-op Recycling Center

The Co-op Recycling Center provides multiple resources for most of your recycling needs in Corvallis and the rest of the valley. They are the only place in town where you can recycle Styrofoam and are a focal point in South Town that helps fulfill our community's needs for recycling items that would otherwise go to the landfill.

Vina Moses

Helps people through hardship, engaging the community to build resilience and improve well-being. Vina Moses serves low-income and under-resourced communities in Benton County. Their programs include a free thrift store, back to school and giving tree programs, outdoor food & hygiene pantries, and emergency financial assistance.

Heartland Humane Shelter and Care

Heartland Humane is a non-profit animal shelter and care organization working to make Benton County a safe and healthy place for every pet, and for the people who love them. They offer pets for adoption to the community.

Greenbelt Land Trust

Greenbelt Land Trust works to protect in perpetuity native habitats, working lands, and lands of natural beauty, which provide a connection to the natural world for residents of the mid-Willamette Valley.

QUARTER THREE:

Philomath Community Gleaners

Philomath Community Gleaners is a non-profit community membership organization in which members work side by side to provide a “helping hand” not a “handout”. Members glean food, household supplies, and wood. Regular members share food with adoptees (those who are elderly or disabled and not required to work). Many tons of food are kept out of the landfill by the work of Philomath Community Gleaners.

Senior Dog Rescue of Oregon

Senior Dog Rescue promotes the well-being, safety, and care of older dogs. Our mission is finding new homes for dogs who are homeless or in unhealthy or unsustainable homes, so that they may spend the remainder of their lives in positive, loving homes.

Corvallis Environmental Center

The Corvallis Environmental Center provides place-based education programming, food insecurity solutions, and energy efficiency services to the community through their facilities and local schools. Their mission is to educate, engage, and inspire people to actively create a healthy and sustainable community today and for generations to come.

Benton Habitat for Humanity

Bringing people together to make safe, decent and affordable housing achievable for everyone in our community, Benton Habitat is dedicated to eliminating substandard housing through constructing and preserving homes. Working in partnership with low-income families, Benton Habitat has built 39 homes and is in progress on the construction an additional 6 Habitat homes.

QUARTER FOUR:

Ten Rivers Food Web (TRFW)

Ten Rivers is an all-volunteer organization working to steward the growth of a resilient local food web in Benton, Lincoln and Linn Counties. They organize two annual cornerstone events: the Soil Amendment Sale and the Fill Your Pantry event.

Corvallis Sustainability Coalition

The CSC is a network of organizations working together to create a sustainable community. It includes businesses, nonprofits, faith communities, educational institutions, and government entities—all committed to creating a community that values environmental quality, social equity, and economic vitality. Accelerating progress toward that sustainable future -must-include hands-on education about food, one of a community’s most vital resources.

Coastal Range Food Bank, Inc. (CRFB)

Each month the Coastal Range Food Bank (CRFB) provides emergency food to Benton County individuals. Customers shop in their country store for quality items that include meat/fish, produce, canned and dry foods, and bottled drinking water. CRFB features a total Organic section with items purchased from First Alternative Co-op. They create access to varieties of healthy food by promoting client autonomy, reducing barriers to food access.

Grace Center for Adult Day Services

Grace Center’s mission is to provide day services that optimize the cognitive and physical abilities of seniors and adults with disabilities so they can remain in their homes, as independent as possible. Serving the community since 1983, Grace Center provides therapeutic programs and services designed around key areas including socialization, exercise, memory care, health monitoring, post-rehabilitation, nutrition, hygiene, and respite for caregivers. Programs are aimed to improve the quality of life for both caregivers and participants.
